STUB AT THE END OF THIS NOTICE.

WE ASSIGNED YOU AN EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

Thank you for applying for an Employer Identification Number (EIN). We assigned you EIN 47-2992267. This EIN will identify you, your business accounts, tax returns, and document even if you have no employees. Please keep this notice in your permanent records.

When filing tax documents, payments, and related correspondence, it's very important that you use your EIN along with your complete name and address exactly as shown above. Any variation may cause a delay in processing, result in incorrect information in your account or even cause you to be assigned more than one EIN. If the information shown above isn't correct, please send us the correction using the attached tear-off stub.

Annual filing requirements

Most organizations with an EIN have an annual filing requirement, even if they engage in minimal or no activity.

A. If you are tax exempt, you may be required to file one of the following returns or notices:

Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax
Form 990-EZ, Short Form Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax
Form 990-PF, Return of Private Foundation
Form 990-N, e-Postcard (available online only)

Additionally, you may be required to file your annual return electronically.

If an organization required to file a Form 990, Form 990-PF, Form 990-EZ, or Form 990-N does not do so for three consecutive years, its tax-exempt status is automatically revoked as of the due date of the third return or notice.

Please refer to www.irs.gov/990filing for the most current information on your filing requirements.

B. If you are not tax-exempt, you may be required to file one of the following returns:

Form 1120, U.S. Corporation Income Tax Return
Form 1041, U.S. Income Tax Return for Estates and Trusts
Form 1065, U.S. Return of Partnership Income

Please refer to Publication 1635, Understanding Your EIN, for more information about which forms you may be required to file.

Applying for Tax-Exempt Status

Receiving an EIN from the IRS is not the same thing as receiving IRS recognition of tax-exempt status. To apply for formal recognition of tax-exempt status, most organizations will need to complete either Form 1023, Application for Recognition Under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or Form 1024, Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(a). Submit the completed form, all applicable attachments, and the required user fee to:

Internal Revenue Service
PO Box 12192
Covington, KY 41012-0192

Publication 557, Tax Exempt Status for Your Organization, has details on the application process as well as information on returns you may need to file.

Additional information

To obtain tax forms and publications, including those referenced in this notice, visit our Web site at www.irs.gov. If you don't have access to the Internet, call 1-800-829-3676 (TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059) or visit your local IRS office.

IMPORTANT REMINDERS:

- * Keep a copy of this notice in your permanent records. This notice is issued only one time and the IRS will not be able to generate a duplicate copy for you. You may give a copy of this document to anyone asking for proof of your EIN.
- * Use this EIN and your name exactly as they appear at the top of this notice on all your federal tax forms.
- * Refer to this EIN on your tax-related correspondence and documents.
- * Provide future officers of your organization with a copy of this notice.

If you have questions about your EIN, you can contact us using the phone number or address shown at the top of this notice. If you write, please tear off the stub at the bottom of this notice and send it along with your letter. If you don't need to write us, please don't complete and return this stub.

Your name control associated with this EIN is GOOD. You will need to provide this information, along with your EIN, if you file your returns electronically.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Good Acts

www.goodacts.org

The charter for Good Acts as a 501c3 Non Profit – Tax Exempt Charitable organization is as follows:

There comes a time in a society where its members become tired and close to giving up on a goal or purpose, especially if waiting for the various forms of authority to provide basic humane help to those in true need.

Good Acts has one mission and that is to do Good Acts.

At this specific point and time in history we have a failing Veterans Affairs system when it comes to getting proper medical and mental health treatment as well as a severe lack in any financial assistance outside of earned pensions or disability benefits. We plan on filling that void with private donations that go directly to aid Veterans and their families with Rent/Mortgage payments, Utilities, Vehicle ownership, Medical expenses as well as any help or guidance through both physical and mental health care.

With this system of private funds going directly to those Veterans who have been deemed by the Veterans Administration as eligible for benefits we can provide:

- relief of the poor, the distressed, or the underprivileged,
- advancement of education or science
- lessening the burdens of government
- lessening neighborhood tensions
- eliminating prejudice and discrimination
- defending human and civil rights secured by law
- combating community deterioration and juvenile delinquency

Board Members

Founder, Organizer, Director and Veteran Lee West – USA Army 1997-1999

Founder, Community Organizer and Veteran Benjamin Nugent – USA Army 2001-2009

Transparency

All donations will be made public with the dollar amount listed and at the donor's request; the donation may be listed as anonymous. Each Veteran in need will be able to post what that specific need is, and donations can be earmarked for that specific need. Any excess in donations will go toward the next need posted and verified by Good Acts staff.

Good Acts Staff

As of February 6, 2015 there are NO salary paid staff members. Lee West is donating all of his time, skill, and expertise in web development, business organization, community leadership, charitable organization and experience through the VA system because the need is there and the goal is to find a solution.

Benjamin Nugent has donated all of his time, skill, and expertise in crisis management, business organization, and experience through the VA system because he also sees that the need is there and the goal is to find a solution.
